

Lone Star Groundwater Conservation District Mobile Education Lab

The mobile lab is an 8.5-by-24-foot enclosed trailer. The learning lab includes live educational displays, including a working aquifer model. TEKS aligned classroom presentations led by trained Lone Star GCD staff are available by request.

3-D Model of Montgomery County Aquifers

Lessons on potable, sewer, and reuse pipes

Indoor water conservation tips

